

Conduent 2022 HIMSS Exhibit Reimagines Business Process Solutions through Lens of Patient Journey

March 11, 2022

Company to address relevant healthcare issues that include advancing health equity, reducing the cost of care and engaging individuals as advocates for whole-person health

FLORHAM PARK, N.J., March 11, 2022 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Conduent Incorporated (Nasdaq: CNDT), a business process services and solutions company, will be onsite at the HIMSS 2022 Global Health Conference and Exhibition with an array of solutions that demonstrate how the company is reimagining data, process and people to spark collaboration across the health ecosystem. A team of community health, public health and care management experts will be in booth #4650 to discuss how Conduent is delivering exceptional outcomes with solutions that address health disparities and social determinants of health, create better experiences and outcomes for individuals, and improve public health. The event will be held live March 14-18 in Orlando, Florida.

Conduent's HIMSS22 exhibit will include these flagship solutions from its portfolio serving the healthcare industry:

- Conduent CommunityVision – Easily view data from electronic health records integrated with social determinants of health and other community-related data to pinpoint causes of a patient's poor outcomes.
- Conduent Healthy Communities Institute \(HCI\) Solutions and Services – Improve community health with the HCI data management and analytics platform which provides intuitive visualizations and tools to identify at-risk populations and support Community Health Needs Assessments (CHNAs).
- Conduent Care Management – Help members navigate their healthcare journey through proprietary analytics, comprehensive data and leading decision technology that provide a 360-degree view of the patient, including socioeconomic demographics, behaviors, and medical risks.
- Maven® Disease Surveillance and Outbreak Management Solution – Support communicable and chronic disease tracking with ability to quickly scale to capture and analyze healthcare data for acute outbreaks through a user-centric, highly configurable, cloud-hosted solution.

"Conduent healthcare clients reach 75 percent of the insured population and span Providers, Payers, Pharma Life Sciences and Government Health organizations. Our experience gives us a unique view of business process solutions through the lens of the patient journey. As the healthcare ecosystem becomes more collaborative, we are continually evolving Conduent's solutions to meet the moment. We look forward to expanding our presence and performance across the entire healthcare continuum to improve individual experiences and engagement," said Randall King, President, Commercial Solutions at Conduent.

Professionals throughout the global health ecosystem will connect in person and digitally at HIMSS22 for the education, innovation and collaboration needed to reimagine health and wellness for everyone, everywhere. Conduent's featured solutions address key issues that these health leaders regularly navigate:

- advancing health equity
- reducing the cost of care
- engaging individuals to become their own best advocates throughout the care journey
- cross-sector solutions to improve public health

At HIMSS22, on Thursday, March 17 starting at 8:30 a.m. EDT, Mary Golway, MSN, RN, NPD-BC of CalvertHealth and Conduent HCI public health expert Jane Chai, MPH will co-present A Purpose-Driven CHNA to Address Health Disparities. The pair will detail how CalvertHealth transformed the Community Health Needs Assessment development process from a "check the box" activity into a catalyst to address whole-person wellness for populations across Maryland's Calvert County with unique partnerships to address health disparities. The session will take place in Orange County Convention Center room WF4.
